9. Ending Prayer: Oh, God on High, who did create St. Joseph to be a model of fatherhood, spouse, model of workers, and protector of virgins, look kindly on those who have a special devotion to the Most Chaste and Humble Heart of St. Joseph, that they may receive the help, protection, and graces that they ask for, for we know from Church teaching that you did look favorably upon St. Joseph and His Most Chaste and Humble Heart, for you prepared him to be the spouse of the Holy Virgin and foster father of Your only begotten Son Jesus Christ.

You who also did increase in his heart certain graces such as reasoning, virginity, charity, poverty, and sympathy for the dying, who made his heart so similar to the hearts of Jesus and Mary, look with love on the Most Chaste and Humble Heart of St. Joseph and grant to him who loved and served your only begotten Son so faithfully, his request that he makes on our behalf.

He desires us to be charitable and to defend us from the evil one. Let him be charitable, especially to poor sinners, and help us in our needs and trials.

And in the sweet name of Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, grant us the graces to serve God, and as an act of love and refuge, hide us in the heart of St. Joseph where we will be protected from the dark and stormy night.

Let the heart of St. Joseph shine forth as a pillar for the Church, to strengthen it and to give it the light of Christ.

And let the heart of St. Joseph which is filled with the love and mercy of God be given to every sinner, including me. In the name of Jesus Christ, My Savior and the only Son of God, I pray and ask this.

Oh Most Chaste and Humble Heart of St. Joseph, I love and trust in thee. Amen
