BACKGROUND

In early 2003, Chris Curtis, a visionary who has experienced public apparitions and messages from God the Father, Jesus, and Mary since March of 2000, wanted more than the traditional 20 mysteries of the Rosary for meditation as he prayed the Rosary daily. He gathered 20 pieces of lined paper and a pencil and outlined 20 new Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, and Glorious mysteries. He wrote the mysteries drawing inspiration from the writings of other visionaries such as the “Mystical City of God” by Mary of Agreida as well as Church legends and scenes shown to him by the Blessed Mother in her private apparitions to him. He also felt the promptings of the Holy Spirit in selecting these particular mysteries. He then illustrated each one, completing the task in 20 days. He titled this Rosary “The Madonna of Miracles.”

Chris intended these mysteries to be for his own private use, but then, on April 25, 2006, our Mother of Mercy made this announcement in her first message through Chris at the prayer meeting:

“I am speaking to you, my little one and to everybody here. I desire publicly to announce that the Rosary that you made for me that I have now changed to Mother of Mercy, I desire it to be given out on May 25th. Do not worry about how this will happen. You have everything that you need. You have help, my dear one. It will be ready by May 25th, and I will explain more about it and how to pray it.”

Because the illustrations were drawn in pencil and on lined paper, it was difficult to reproduce them clearly. The pencil drawings were reinforced with a black pen where possible, but most of the paper lines had to remain. The results were printed in response to Mother of Mercy’s request to have them given out at the prayer meeting on May 25th, the Feast of the Mother of Mercy.

On May 25, 2006, our Mother of Mercy gave us the following message through Chris:

“My dear little children, praised be Jesus!
My dear children, today, on this great feast day of me as your Mother of Mercy, I bring not only the Child Jesus who I hold in my arms but the whole Heavenly Court. (I see many, many people and angels. They’re all around.) Today, I desire to invite you back to more prayer. That is why I desire to call you to pray the Mother of Mercy Rosary. I desire to give you this new devotion alongside my chaplet so that you may know and that you may better understand the mysteries of God, which are laid within me. Therefore, dear children, I wish to give you this gift. The mysteries are inspired by the Holy Spirit, and they call you to a deeper faith, trust in me, your mother. There are many mysteries in this Rosary about me, your mother. Through this Rosary, you will come to understand my mysteries more and how I am not only the Mother of God but your Mother of Mercy.

“Yes, it is true, I changed the name of this Rosary. It was at one time called the Madonna of Miracles. I changed it to the Mother of Mercy because it was through each instance that when the miracle was proclaimed, it was through me interceding under the title of Mother of Mercy. God granted these miracles and these graces through me who interceded on your behalf . That is why I changed the name to Mother of Mercy because every miracle that I helped to intercede for and obtain came forth from my loving mercy and from God's unceasing, divine mercy working through me.

"I desire to tell you how it should be prayed. For example, on Sunday, you shall start off with the Joyful Mysteries of the regular Rosary. Then on Monday, you shall say the Luminous Mysteries of the regular Rosary. Then, on Tuesday, you shall pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of the regular Rosary, and then on Wednesday, you shall pray the Glorious Mysteries of the regular Rosary. Then on Thursday, you shall pray the Joyful Mysteries of me, your Mother of Mercy. And then on Friday, you shall pray the Luminous Mysteries of me, your Mother of Mercy. Then on Saturday, you shall pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of me, your Mother of Mercy. And on Sunday, you shall pray the Glorious Mysteries of the Mother of Mercy Rosary. Thus you shall pray, and it shall be for eight days, four devoted to the regular Rosary and four days devoted to my Rosary. Eight is the completion of God. It is perfect in its in form and in its symbol. It is complete and whole. Therefore, for eight days you shall pray, four devoted to the regular Rosary and again, four devoted to my Rosary. And that is it. You shall pray like this all the time. I desire you to draw closer to my Merciful Immaculate Heart, and this is one way that I am accomplishing it, through this Rosary and the Chaplet of Mother of Mercy..... This message that I give is for the world, but it is also for those who wish to accept it, for anyone is invited to pray the Rosary, if they wish..."

THE
MYSTERIES

Of The Mother Of Mercy Rosary

THE FIRST JOYFUL MYSTERY

The Finding of Mary in the Garden

Mary is two years old and St. Anna cannot find her. She had turned around and the little child Mary was gone. St. Anna begins to panic and prays to God, "Oh, my God, I am so sorry for having lost your little girl. Please have mercy on me, Oh Mighty Father, and help me find her." Just then, she hears Mary giggle. She looks down and finds Mary in the rose garden playing. Mary is picking the petals off of the roses. The petals symbolize graces from Jesus.

Fruit of the mystery: When you find Mary, you will find Jesus.

THE SECOND JOYFUL MYSTERY

Mary Prays For St. Joseph So He May Perform the Holy Will of God

St. Joseph does not know what to think about Mary being with child so he goes home to pray and think on these things. Mary begins to pray and ask God to help St. Joseph to have a clearer understanding of God's Holy Will and that he may perform God's Most Holy Will. That night, through the intercession of the Blessed Mother Mary, God sends St. Gabriel to St. Joseph to tell him to take Mary for his wife and that the baby to be born is the Son of God.

Fruit of the mystery: Through Mary, we come to know the Holy Will of God.

THE THIRD JOYFUL MYSTERY

The Baby Jesus Provides Food for His Father and Mother

Fleeing into Egypt, Mary becomes hungry. Joseph asks, "Are you hungry Mary? You have not eaten anything for two days." Mary says, "Yes, a little," As they continue their journey, Joseph and Mary see some figs on a fig tree, but it is too high for Joseph to reach, even with his staff. Mary looks at the Baby Jesus so lovingly that He is moved with compassion for His mother. The Baby Jesus raises His hands and the branch of the fig tree lowers itself down to the ground so Mary may eat from it.

Fruit of the mystery: With one look from Mary, all hearts melt.

THE FOURTH JOYFUL MYSTERY

Arriving in Egypt, Mary and the Baby Jesus Exorcised All the Demons into Hell.

As they enter the city, a tree near the gate bows its branches, even to the earth, rendering homage to its Creator and thanking Him and His mother for delivering it from a demon who had for a long time been venerated by the Egyptians. Exorcising His supreme power as He passes through the city, the Baby Jesus with His mother cast all the demons into hell and overthrow the idols and destroy their temples.

Fruit of the mystery: In the Most holy Names of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, all demons are cast into hell.

THE FIFTH JOYFUL MYSTERY

Mary and the Baby Jesus in Egypt/Mother of Joy

The fame of the sanctity of the Holy Family spreads throughout the city, and persons of every condition flock to visit them. Our Lord answers that Mary should instruct them in the truths of the faith and the knowledge of the true God. She devotes herself particularly to the care of the poor and infirm in whose favor she exercised not only her charity but also her wisdom and power. So great is the number that flocks to her that she asks Our Lord to permit St. Joseph to aid her in the work.

Fruit of the mystery: Mary takes great joy in helping us.
